Founded in 1849, WILLIAM JEWELL COLLEGE is a campus of achievement, offering students an outstanding liberal arts education with a unique focus on cultivating leadership within an environment that values intellectual challenge and personal and spiritual growth. Jewell offers students all the amenities of a beautiful liberal arts campus setting, with exceptional recreational and athletic facilities. Just 20 minutes from downtown Kansas City, the campus is perched above the historic town of Liberty, among the beautiful rolling hills of western Missouri. Following are some key points of interest about Jewell:

- ♦ Enrollment stands at approximately 1,300 full-time day students and 300 students enrolled in evening classes. The student body has representation from approximately 36 states and 12 foreign countries.
- ♦ International programs in England, Australia, Ireland, Japan, France, Spain, Germany, Austria, Italy, Ghana, Hong Kong and Mexico allow Jewell students to study at some of the world's great universities.
- ♦ The Oxbridge Honors Program, funded by the Hall Family Foundation, combines British tutorial methods of instruction with opportunities for a year of study in Oxford or Cambridge.
- ♦ The Harriman Arts Program, which is celebrating its 40th anniversary season in 2004-05, is considered the Midwest's premiere program in the performing arts. Luciano Pavarotti made his international solo recital debut as part of the series, and each year's schedule includes the best and brightest dance and theater companies, orchestras, ensembles and recitalists.
- ♦ The Pryor Leadership Studies Program includes class work, community service projects and internships that allow students to enhance their leadership skills in a variety of settings.

JEWELL DISTINCTIONS

William Jewell College is enjoying a period of unparalleled success and recognition in a number of key areas.

- ♦ William Jewell is ranked the number one "Best Value" private college in the U.S. in The Princeton Review's 2004-05 edition of "The Best 357 Colleges." The college ranked second in the student satisfaction category and fifth in relationship with its community.
- ♦ Only three American institutions of higher learning had a Marshall Scholar, a Truman Scholar and a student on USA Today's All-USA College Academic Team in 2002: Harvard University, Stanford University and William Jewell College.
- ♦ U.S. News & World Report recently asked college presidents, chief academic officers and deans of students at colleges and universities across the country to rank colleges with outstanding programs for first-year students. The top 10 included Princeton (#4), Duke (#5), Stanford (#6), William Jewell (#9) and Harvard (#10).
- ♦ Freshman to sophomore retention rates at William Jewell are currently approximately 90%, indicating overwhelming satisfaction among students who are choosing Jewell.
- ♦ The 2004 freshman class is the largest incoming class since 1994. The increased enrollment has been accomplished without sacrificing academic selectivity.
- ♦ William Jewell College has been chosen for inclusion in Colleges of Distinction, a college guidebook profiling 150 U.S. colleges that excel in engaging students and that provide great teaching, offer a vibrant campus community and successful outcomes for students.
- ♦ Jewell was named TIME Magazine's "Liberal Arts College of the Year" for 2001-02.
