HOUSEHOLD MEMBER WORKSHEET

This worksheet may be used by the student to determine who is considered a member of the household by the U.S. Department of Education. This worksheet is not required by the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships Services and is intended for reference use only. However, documentation may be requested to substantiate your household size.

A student's household is determined by the student's dependency status as defined by the U.S. Department of Education. Refer to Step Three of the FAFSA or see your Federal Student Aid Report (SAR) to review your answers.

Answer all questions in this step to determine your household:

• Were you born before January 1, 1986?	Yes	No
• As of today, are you married? (Answer "Yes" if you are separated but not divorced.)	Yes	No
• At the beginning of the 2009-2010 school year, will you be working on a master's or doctorate program (such as an MA, MBA, MD, JD, PhD, EdD, or graduate certificate, etc.)?	Yes	No
• Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?	Yes	No

If you responded with at least one "Yes" answer above, your household must include:

- Yourself, and your spouse if you have one, and
- Your children, if you will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010, and
- Other people if they live with you, and you provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of support from July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010.

If you responded with all "No" answers above, your household must include:

- Yourself and your parent(s) (including stepparent) even if you don't live with your parent(s), and
- Your parents' other children, even if they don't live with your parent(s), if (a) your parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010, or (b) the children would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal Student Aid, and
- Other people if they now live with your parent(s), and your parent(s) provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010.
