

Department of Nursing

The Department of Nursing grants the Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing through a five-semester BSN track or a 12-month BSN-AT (accelerated) track. William Jewell's Department of Nursing provides a superior nursing education that fosters holistic growth within a liberal arts environment, serving individuals, families, communities, and populations on and beyond the campus, and promoting standards of excellence in professional nursing.

Graduates who earn a B.S. in Nursing at William Jewell exemplify the following hallmarks:

- Servant leadership in all environments;
- Service to others, integrating skills, knowledge, and Christian values in service to others;
- Personal integrity as a nurse professional;
- Compassion, cultivating caring nurse-client relationships with cultural sensitivity;
- Scholarship, assuming responsibility for lifelong learning within the discipline of nursing;
- Excellence in practice, delivering evidence-based nursing of superior quality in varied health environments.

About the Major

The nursing program at William Jewell is based on a philosophy of nursing as a combination of scientific competence and sensitivity to human needs, with an emphasis on the well-being of the whole person. The faculty emphasizes the responsibility and accountability of the individual learner, the blending of academic and practical knowledge, and the highest degree of professional ethics.

Admission to the nursing program requires an application separate from the College admission procedure. Please refer to the College website, www.jewell.edu, for admission requirements and prerequisites.

The Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing requires coursework in liberal arts, leadership, and professional nursing. A student may enter the program through one of three paths: (1) as a qualified high school graduate via direct entry, or with a declared intent to major in nursing; (2) as a transfer student entering in the spring of the sophomore year; (3) or as a second-degree student in the BSN-AT (accelerated track) program. The Department of Nursing is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.
