

William Jewell College: Operation Resurgent Campus

For Current Risk Level Condition Visit jewell.edu

	Level	Situational Assessment	Response	Risk Mitigation <small>Revised 10/20/21</small>
Updated Risk Level Assessment January 2022	A	Infectious disease conditions exist and warrant limited precautionary measures. Community Vaccination Reaches Saturation And Low Campus COVID-19 Incidence Rate And Low Community Transmission Rating per CCPHC	Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduce long-term solutions to mitigate the spread of respiratory disease. Annual vaccination plan including annual disclosures Monitor and support student and employee health and wellness with continued education.
	A1	Infectious disease conditions exist and warrant controlled precautionary measures. Campus Vaccination Rate > 75% And Employee Vaccination Rate > 90% And Student Vaccination Rate > 70% And Low Campus COVID-19 Incidence Rate (No or Isolated on-campus transmission) And Low Community Transmission Rating per CCPHC	Controlled	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Report symptoms of COVID-19 and stay home. Wear a facial covering if experiencing cold or flu-like symptoms. Vaccine education Quarantine protocols reduced for asymptomatic individuals who are close contacts. Facial coverings required for 10 days with tests between day 3-5 and day 8. Isolation of all positive test results Reduced College-sponsored surveillance and asymptomatic testing Facial coverings are encouraged during large indoor gatherings including campus visitors and may be required by faculty per course syllabus. Normal distancing
	A2	Infectious disease conditions exist and warrant concentrated precautionary measures. Employee Vaccination Rate > 75% And Student Vaccination Available And Low Campus COVID-19 Incidence Rate (No or Isolated on-campus transmission)	Concentrated	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Temporary facial covering orders supersede masking guidance that follows. Facial coverings are required in communal indoor settings by unvaccinated individuals Faculty may establish facial covering requirements in the classroom per the course syllabus. Visitor use of campus permitted with a facial covering required. Unvaccinated individuals should follow CDC guidelines for quarantine Follow CDC guidelines for isolation Physical distancing is recommended where posted